stock of Drugs, Patent Med-prepared to sell low at retail icines, Paints, Notions, Blank inducements to the Trade,

WHOLESALE

Books and Stationery, and is WHOLESALE AND RETAIL in kegs, half barrels and barrels.

Crushed, Powdered and Granulated

New Orleans, Clarified and Brown

SUGAR

NEW CAROLINA RICE.

CRITS.

MAGCARONI.

TAPIOCA.

OYSTERS

PICKLES.

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE

GELATINE.

Burnett's Flavoring Extracts

DRIED BEEF.

or wholesale. EXTRA GOLDEN SYRUP, W. H. TURNLEY.

W. D. MERIWETHER, Jr. TURNLEY, ELY & CO. TOBACCO

General Commission Merchants,

FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE, SUGAR Advances made on Tobacco in Store

We have secured the services of Col. W. F. Young, the well-known auctioner, who will sell all of our Tobacco for us. We have erected a shed in New Providence, opposite the store of Messrs. McDaniel & Barbee, where we will receive tobacco and deay it to our warehouse free of charge let & Barbee, where we will receive to account dray it to our warehonse free of charge for those persons who do not wish to haul it to Clarksville. Messrs, McDaniel & Barbee will receive, weigh and receipt for To-bacco delivered at our shed in New Providence.

Oct 1 71 - tf.

W. A. QUARLES. W. M. DANIEL Quarles, Daniel & Quarles Attorneys at Law, CLARKSVILLE, - - - TENN

Will practice in the Courts of Montgom ery and adjoining counties. April 27, 1872-tf CHAS. W. TYLER. DMOND B. LURTON.

LURTON & TYLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Will practice in the courts of Montgom ery and adjoining counties June 15, 72-1f. JAMES W. RICE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, CLARKSVILLE, TENN. Will attend the courts of Montgomery, Stewart and Houston counties. Office on Strawberry Alley. Jan. 4, 1873-ly

BARKER & COURTS.

QUOR DEALERS, Franklin St., Sign of Sugar Hogshead.

Jan 13, 72-tf.

RICH'D ANDERSON. E. S. BRINGHURST. ANDERSON & BRINGHURST, DEALERS IN COAL, HAY, GRAIN, BRAN, ETC FRANKLIN STREET. CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Dec. 23, 1871-ly National Hotel,

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

T. D. SCOTT, - - - Proprietor. This house is complete in all its appointments, and the table supplied with the best the market affords, at reasonable rates.

Jan. 29 *69-4f

JOHN MANNING Is Always on

JOHN MANNING has discovered that the citizens of Clarksville and surrounding country needed a specific in the rarest game of the season, served up in European style on ten minutes notice, and as the canvass for the Presidency has now fairly opened, he keeps constantly on hand the choicest Wines, Liquors, pure imported Havanna Cigars and Cincinnati Lager Heer, to nerve all candidates on to victory. Restaurant and Saloon open night and day, where the most fastidious may be more than pleased.

Chas. Lehman. Roths' Old Saloon

Having purchased the popular Saloon, Restaurant and Billiard Hall.

Formerly owned by G. A. Roth, has had Wines, Liquors, Cignrs, and other refreshments. Everything kept neat and orderly. Aug 10, 72-tf

> S. OPPENHEIMER, DEALER IN

Hides, Furs, Wool, Ginseng, and all kinds of Metal, Public Square, CLARKSVILLE. I am no candidate for office, but will pay cash for all articles in my line. Come along with them. Sept. 28, 1872-11

McCORMAC'S! Pictures For Everybody!!!

While thanking my friends and the public generally, for the very liberal trade extended to me heretofore, solicit a continuance of their patronage, and do my best to deserve it by bringwith any of the large cities of the north or east, and by excelling them in the quality of work. My arrangements now for work are such that I photographs, to suit the wishes of my

Four of the popular little Gem pic-tures made and beautifully colored for the Dollar!

I will guarantee the best work ever! TIMOTHY SEED. done in Clarksville. Come up and see. Respectfully, W. J. McCormac. May 10, 1873-tf.

The finest selection of im- BLUE GRASS SEED ported Colognes, Handkerchief Extracts, Hair Oils, Toilet Soaps, Combs and Brushes of all kinds for sale by OWEN & MOORE.

Is now making large additions to his stock, and offers

Franklin Street.

Clarksville, Tenn.,

Are daily adding new supplies to their large and well assorted stock of

Staple and Fancy

FLINTHOMINY

which they sell as low as they can be bought anywhere in the South or West.

They invite especial attention their very large Stock of the Best Brands of Robertson County Whisky, Old Brandy and Pure Wines.

We are

SOLE AGENTS,

DRAUGHAN'S

CELEBRATED

Robertson County

Whiskey

who want a pure article

for medicinal or other purposes.

Orders promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed

Walter McComb & Co

TONGUES

BLACKBERRIES

PEACHES.

CORN

TOMATOES.

COLMAN'S MUSTARD.

PURE CREAM TARTAR.

Pure Spices, of all kinds

PURE BI-CARB. SODA.

Horsford's Bread Preparation,

PURE CATAWBA WINE

Pure Cider Vinegar.

Old Sour Mash Whisky.

Old Peach and Apple Brandy.

can make at one sitting 4, 8, 16, or 32 Old French Brandy.

300 Bus. Clover Seed

Orchard and Herds Grass Seeds.

With all other goods to make a complete

J. J. CRUSMAN. Jan. 4, '73-tf.

BYERS keeps a complete J. J. CRUSMAN WALTER McCOMB & Co V. L. WILLIAMS.

Would call your attention to his new spring Stock of Boots & Shoes, just in store. The assortmentinevery grade is very complete. Also new styles in Ties, Collars, Cravats, Scarfs, and Gents' Underwear, All goods sold at the very lowest cash prices .--Please call and examine them at No. 23 Franklin Street.

W. M. POLLOCK. SAM'L JOHNSON

GENERAL INSURANCE

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

-AND-

(Office Up Stairs)

CORNER FRANKLIN AND FIRST STS., CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE

Fire and Marine Insurance. The best and cheapest Life Insurance in the United States. The

OLD AND RELIABLE

New York Life Ins. Co.,

no new-fangled, untried, or experimental

LOWEST KNOWN RATES CONSISTENT WITH SECURITY.

Be not deceived and misled. The best is the cheapest. If you wish to insure your life, choose a company of age, experience and ability, and you will select the "Old Reliable" New York Life.

Will give our attention to the buying, selling and renting of real estate,
March 15, '73-tf.

H. P. DORRIS. J. J. HAMLETT. HAMLETT & DORRIS

DEALERS IN

Stoves, Tinware, Castings, Grates, and House Furnishing Goods.

Every description of Tinware ade up in good style.

ROOFING and GUTTERING promptly attended to.

H. P. DORRIS will superintend the workroom Feb. 1, 1873-tf

SETTLE & SON, Ag'ts, CROCERS,

Country Produce Generally FRANTLIN HALL BUILDING,

And Dealers in

CLARKSVILLE, TENN. We keep every variety of

FAMILY SUPPLIES, IN THIS MARKET, FOR which we offer at the lowest market rates

> WANTED. Country Produce of all kinds, Poultry, Eggs, Butter, etc., for which we will ex-Groceries or pay cash. SETTLE & SON.

COAL! COAL! We are delivering St. Bernard Coal, within the limits of the city, for 18 cents per bushel. Pittsburg Coal, for 30 cents per bushel. Terms cash. F. P. GRACEY & BRO. Sep. 2, 1871-tf

Jan. 25, '72-tf.

ICE CREAM AND SODA WATER

LIGON & ELY'S.

We have opened our Ice Cream Saloon for the season, and are prepared to furnish any quantity that may be desired. We have on hand a large and varied as-particularly suited to those and everything in our line that can desired. Call and examine our stock.

CONFECTIONERIES, FIREWORKS, MASKS, DOLLS,

TOYS,

LIGON & ELY,

HIS FIRST, BEST FRIEND.

ablin Freeman—wondefully pathetic in eir simple fidelity to one of the noblest t just about to sail, and will find ap-member, Denis, all I bade you say: fell him we're well and happy, thank the Lord;

But of our troubles since he went away
You'll mind, avick, and never say a word.
Of cares and troubles, sure, we've all our share—
The finest summer isn't always fair.

share; "Twas then I missed him most—my own I felt, allhough kind hearts were round me there.

The kindest heart peat in a foreign land.
Strong hand, brave heart!—one severed

The kindest heart peat in a foreign land.
Strong hand, brave heart!—one severed

The kindest heart peat in a foreign land.
Strong hand, brave heart!—one severed

The kindest hand expected some sort of a response to her pretty penitence. But she didn't get any; so, after a brief pause, she went on:

"Indeed, Kate, I didn't mean to you suppose he was very angry, Kate?

Do you think I ought to ask his pardon? But then you know he didn't see me steal around the lawn, and pick eye?
The darkest, deepest, brightest, bonniest blue
I ever saw, except in summer skies;
And such black hair!—it is the blackest
That ever rippled over neck so fair. up the roses again."

There were strong symptoms of coming tears—a sort of quivering sob light; But may be 'tis my eyes are growing eld, And things look dim before my failin ly you can't be asleep.

True to his name, his country, and his Faithful at home, and steadfast still A CHARMING LOVE STORY.

A tall blue-eyed girl, with loose, brown curls floating from her face like an aureole of amber brightness and a slender throat, white and smooth as a mother of pearl-that was Valentin Bruce, as she sat by the open French window, dreamily watching the sunset flame melt into opal billows

And Colonel Mordaunt smoked his despairing cigar, in the fragrant shad-ows of the shrubbery, and wondered what fortunate mortal might be fated to buy Valentin's wedding ring and pay her millinery bills, and be her humble slave and servitor through life. Colonel Mordaunt tossed his cigar in among the rose-acacies that skirt the lawn, and began to select a cluster of moss roses, heedless of the thorns that pierced his unaccustomed fingers.

"Shedike Fowers," he soliloquized, "and moss roses are certainly the pret-tiest flowers that grow. I will win a voking calmness. smile from those velvet lips of her." taken. It was only Jack! I saw him He twisted a blade of pliant grass go in there not half an hour ago. "The around the mossy stems, in place of a ribbon, and sauntered carelessly up idea of taking our Jack for a robber!" the graveled walk.

mere fancy. All of a sudden he stopped. "Frank Aldrich's voice!" he ex-Only Jack! In the midst of her terror the possibility had never occur-red to Valentin Bruce's mind. Only claimed, biting his lip with vexation as a merry peal of laughter floated through the purling twilight from the open windows beyond. "What brings would have faded into nothingness bethat puppy here, now, of all times and fore the mere idea of Colonel Mordaunt having heard all these soft seasons in the world?"

"Halloo, Jack!" said Aldrich, pleadings and unconscious admissions. One minute Valentin felt as if every Been sentimentalizing out in the dew? vein throughout her whole frame were The ladies were just fretting over the filled with molten fire-then she grew chance of your taking cold. Mordaunt's face brightened up-Valentin did think of him sometimes. white and cold as a marble statue. Life and strength seemed ebbing away from her-for the first time in her life Valentin Bruce fainted away.

Katy Mordaunt quietly sprinkled scented water on the palid forehead, and began to unlace the white muslin dress. As she did so, a faded bunch

He was standing at the window, on say that you loved me! Oh, my voiceless yet happy. Still he was ips yet again, Valentin. Nay, dearest, lon't shrink away so pleadingly, but

Sweeter than the fall of musical cas ades through groves of tropic bloom softer than the thrill of nightingale

"Tell me that you love me.

ooking down on the morning sunshine

"That is," pursued the relentless Aldrich, "poor, thoughtful sister Katy said she was afraid you would have a cold, and Miss Bruce said noth-Colonel Mordaunt's countenance elongated again. But he stepped for-ward and laid the knot of moss roses and Katy smiled as she recognized the moss buds that had been so haughtily in the folds of Valentin's white muslin dress, with a few murmured words | thrown out on the lawn that very eventhat nobody could understand. "Flowers, ch?" said Frank, super-cilliously, "upon my word, Jack is "I'll keep them for Jack,' she said "Ah, Valentin, you'll be my sister-inlaw vet. How shyly the blue eyed damse the cluster of pink buds, then delibstole in the breakfast room the next erately took them up and tossed them morning. She would have cheerfully fasted all day sooner than enter the presence of the tall colonel; but what was the use. The dreaded first interinto the lawn. "Explain, if you please," said Frank, composedly while Mordaunt grew scarlet and bit his lips until the blood started.

view must be got over, sooner or later, so here she was, with down cast lashes, "There was a worm-a horrid green worm on one of the buds," haughtily and cheeks dyed as deep pink as the rose colored wrapper she had on. No said Valentin, shaking off one or two more haughty airs and graces - no more frimson petals that still adhered to her muslin dress, "I have a perfect horror of all such noxious insects." cool composure. She was at Colone Mordaunt's mercy, and she knew it! Would he take cruel advantage of her helplessness. Or would he—' But "Do you hear that, Jack?" ap-pealed Aldrich, lazily turning around there her cogitations always stopped. in his chair. "It's a pity you were so upfortunate in the selection of your floral offering." But Colonel Mordaunt had left the that bathed the short, velvety grass before the piazza. But he room. Kate followed him the next quickly as she entered with a bright "Dearest Jack, are you vexed with Frank and Valentin? They don't "Valentin!" he said, gently, "was I dreaming last night, or did I hear darling, tell me it was no baseless mean to annoy you, I'm sure—'

"Not yexed, dear," said Mordaunt, speaking slowly and—"only grieved. I am sorry Miss Bruce finds me so dis-He went up stairs, while Kate hesi-tated a moment below. "He is better by himself," she said, mentally "Poor fellow! he is dreadfully in love; I do wish Valentin would nt tease him so.

"What shall I say?" she murmured, timidly raising her soft eyes to his And she went down in the teraced garden to gather honeysuckles for the parlor vases, and muse on her brother's manifold grievances. "It's too bad, so it is?" she mur-mured, winking back the bright drops that would suffuse her hazel-brown in Persian valleys, the three charmed words touched on his ear, and he knew "I shall talk seriously to Valentin about it this very evening." that she was his-his forever! Meanwhile, Colonel Mordaunt stalk-The courtship is drawn to a termination now—the white satin dress is finded, and the white roses are in bud that shall soon be woven into the little recess and magazines, needle cases and thimbles, and the indescribable debris which two girls invariably collect around themselves in the course of a June afternoon.

He threw himself recklessly down on the soft and drew the soft and the white stifn dress is finating and ew years past was forty, bettiened sightly soven shillings, or ten dollars and eighty shillings, or ten dollars and eighty seven shillings, or twenty-one dollars a ton, in gold.

Without particularizing we would say that within the last two years there has been more inconsting the shillings, or twenty-one dollars a ton, in gold.

Without particularizing we would say that within the last two years there has been more inconstent in Country the last within the last two years there has been more inconsent.

Without particularizing we soft in the last two years there has been more inconsent.

With

He threw himself recklessly down on the sofa and drew the soft folds of LIGORY the sofa and drew the soft folds of Kate's cashmere shawl over him, as if jealous lest the soft eyes of the watching stars, that were just beginning to gem the heavens, should witness the struggle that convulsed this strong man's heart.

Not the sofa and drew the soft folds of Kate's cashmere shawl over him, as if jealous lest the soft eyes of the watching stars, that were just beginning to gem the heavens, should witness the struggle that convulsed this strong man's heart.

white and silent, with the curtain sweeping down around his motionless head.

The Producing Capacity of Georgia. Tennessee and Alabama.

Like the tremulous coo of the wood pigeon, Valentin's voice murmured the soft syllables with the coaxing accent Here and Elsewhere—The Iron Scep-Here and Elsewhere—The Iron Scepter to Pass to the South.

soft syllables with the coaxing accent of a child. And in the same instant she kelt down beside the sofa, her white dress sweeping over the crimson carpet tides of translucent pearl, and one arm thrown caressingly over the folds of the deceitful cashmere shaw! Colonel Mordaunt's first impulse was to spring up and declare his individuality—his second to lie still, and let Fate manage the matter to suit her capricious self. So he lay still according, experiencing a very singular and McMinnville, May 28, 1873—Gov. Jno. C. Brown, President of the At-lanta Convention—Dear Sir: I was induced by friends to attend the convention lately held in Atlanta, Ga., to introduce for further consideration of its members a report showing the effect a "Canal to the Sea" would have upon the iron and coal interest of Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama, and as soon as practicable after the organing, experiencing a very singular and not at all disagreeable sensation, from the contact of the caressing arm. No doubt he was a treacherous, hypocritical wretch—but, fair lady, or chival-rous gentleman, don't judge the poor fellow too harshly until you have been in precisely the same circumstances. a resolution asking the appointment by the President of a special committo whom my resolution was referred did not considder it; consequently the solicitation of several members in precisely the same circumstances yourself. It is just possible—only pos-sible you know—that you might do the same thing.

"Now you are angry with me, Kate!"
pleaded the soft voice, "because I threw those flowers away! And won't speak to me! and I know I deserve it, darlin!" the Convention from Kentucky and Tennessee, I address your Excellency this letter embracing such facts as I presumed a committee would report to

In September, 1869, I had the honor There was a moment's silence, as if Miss Valentin had expected some sort grieve you—and I won't do it again. I am sorry for my ridiculous freak. Do

"You won't forgive me, Kate?"
Not if I tell that I do really love your tall, stern brother? Only, Katy, I was silly enough to want to tease him a live in the state water being made in these States with the state water being made in these States with the state water being made in these States water water water and it is silly enough to want to tease him a little, and test my power over his noble heart. I love him, Kate—I may tell you of it, dear, without being bold, or unwomanly, because you know we have so often talked about his liking bama, are now manufacturing pig iron is now being made in these States at less than my estimated cost, and it is still more gratifying to me to assert as the facts warrant me to do, that these States, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama, are now manufacturing pig iron is now being made in these States me a little and—and—oh Kate, answer me! don't be so cold and cruel! Sure-

"Where are your lips, cher amie?" she coaxed playfully. "I shall soon break the magnet spell of silence that binds them. You know you never keep vexed with me more than five minutes at a time. Why, where's provided with the statement of the Eastern Iron Men's Association, is $29,65.

minutes at a time. Why, where s your hair? Where—."

She sprang suddenly to her feet with a piercing scream—her wandering hand had touched the dark heavy moustache on which Colonel Mordaunt prided himself so especially.

He strove to catch the hand—to detain the frightened beauty long enough The cause of the cheapness of prothe cause of the cheapness of production here as compared with the statistic of honeysuckles.

The cause of the cheapness of production here as compared with the North and East is of easy solution. There, the material which enters into the make of iron-coal and iron ore are pring the spicy blossoms. "Why, what is the matter? what can bave started you so dreadfully?"

"Oh, Katy! Katy! sobbed Valentin, clinging to her friend's shoulder, with nervous vehemence, "there is a man in your room—a robber, hiding under your cashmere shawl on the sofal Oh, I am nearly frightened to death!" Katy's serene brown eyes dilated a little—then brightened into a smiling archess.

"A robber!" she repeated with provoking calmness.

"A robber!" she repeated with provoking calmness of easy solution, the sale time the salaries are much less than have ecterished with the salaries are much less than have questioned the fairness of a report shown to be complete and correct nevery particular. The entire sharing in calm provoking calmness are provoked transported transported with the salaries are much less than have destinued. The duestione tle—then brightened into a smiling chess.

"A robber!" she repeated with proking calmness.

"Nonsense, Valentin, you are misken. It was only Jack! I saw him county, Tennessee, a tram-way half a mile long transports both coal and ore to the furnace, the cost of the ore Katy's laughter rippled merily at the for a ton of iron is $3. What then can prevent these States from soon bening the Wales of America? Nothing but the want of water communication with the sea,—the great West, and those "inland seas" bounding one-third the union in the North.

Thirty years ago the world's product of pig iron annually was 3,000,000 tons, now it is 12,000,000 tons. Then the products of Great Britain was 1,000,-000 tons, now it is 6,000,00. Then the production of the United States was 285,000 tons, now it is 2,250,000 tons. Thirty years hence the ratio of increased production being the same as the tons. But from the mutterings we hear from Great Britain—From England—it is apparent that she has reached the topmost round in the ladder of prosperity in the production of iron That which enters into the make of pig iron, coal and iron ore, is being exhausted so rapidly that her statesmen are egation of Memorial alarmed for the future in regard to bia, concludes thus: coal, and a political economist has said—"We may conclude the time is not far distant when England must surrender to her competitors many of the industries of which she has hitherto enjoyed a practical monopoly Coal may be said to be the nation's prosperity and so long as it remained where the wheels of the Triumphal prosperity, and so long as it remained abundant and cheap there was practically no limit to the expansion of its —the Horatii and Curatii. Sto industries; but with coal as now, urn and animated bust mark not the scarce and dear in proportion to the spot, but within those green mounds demand, the British manufacturer restthe bones of those whose deeds have demand, the British manufacturer finds himself placed at a serious disadvantage. With cheap production he could supply three-fourths of the world's markets, but as his wares increase in cost, competition is encouraged which might not otherwise have ed which might not otherwise have been possible. Dear coal means high prices in every department of trade. If the present scarcity of coal in Great Britain is due to the fact that its mines are no longer able to yield what is needed to carry on its great industries, those industries must languish, and of refreshing dew of sorrowing affection." these, iron manufacture is the surest and most seriously effected." What nestled there like a fluttering fawn, are the facts? The coal mines of Great Britain have reached the maximum of their production, 100,000,000 tons a year, and cannot now yield sufficient to make it "abundant and cheap." The shafts of many of the mines, it is said, have attained to the depth of 2.000 feet; and at that great depth the thermometer stands at 80 deg. Fahr., which renders labor difficult and expensive. Coal a few years since was add in Evaluation of the standard of the stand which renders labor difficult and expensive. Coal a few years since was sold in England at ten shillings or two dollars and forty cents a ton, now it is worth forty shillings or nine dollars and sixty cents a ton. The cost of making a ten of pig iron in Great Reitsin a few years past was forty-five. The courtship is drawn to a termina-Britain a few years past was forty-five then show conclusively that there can then show conclusively that there can be but a slight, it any increase in the production of iron in the Old World. In that event it is palpable that the New World must increase its iron production far beyond its ratio. This iron sceptre is slipping from the hands of the European manufacturers, and it will naturally fall into the hands of the American manufacturers. They of the American manufacturers. They alone are able to grasp it, and those three Southwestern States. Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama, with a greater area of coal and iron ore than England, Scotland and Wales, and a climate so genial that it is incomparable, must soon become the great iron producing section of this continent when opened up to the markets by water communication. Let the mandate go forth from the people that these water communications shall be made, and before the great enterprise, worthy of a great people, is completed, a hundred furnaces will be erected, where brilliant and prosperous fires shall light up the valleys of the Cumberland, Tennessee, Sequatchie, Coosa, Black Warrior and Cahaba, producing annually 1,000,000 tons of pig iron, and adding $40,000,000 to the wealth of the people, and in addition 5,000,000 tons coal, \(\frac{1}{2}\) the annual product of Pennsylvania, can be mined and floated to market, which will add $15,000,000 more to our wealth as a people. warrior and Cahaba, producing an-nually 1,000,000 tons of pig iron, and adding $40,000,000 to the wealth of the people, and in addition 5,000,000 tons coal, \(\frac{1}{2}\) the annual product of Pennsylvania, can be mined and float-ed to market, which will add $15,000,-

[St. Louis Journal 28th.]

The investigation into the affairs of the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company of this city still continues to prove that the Mutual is a company fortunate in having been managed deep regret to me that General Clan-wisely and economically. The prosdaunt prided himself so especially.

He strove to catch the hand—to detain the frightened beautylong enough to plead his cause in earnest, impassioned words, but in vain. Fear seemed literally to lend her wings. Away like a frightened white dove, she flew, uttering wild hysteric screams, and fairly failing into the arms of the as-or mercy. The parties to the suit brought without foundation should be at once arrested for conspiracy, invoked as an engineef annoyance

The Confederate Dead.

The South Carolinian, in speaking of the beautiful and enthusiastic delegation of Memorial Day in Colum-

Twenty miles on the Via Appia, where the wheels of the Triumph their last sad resting place with the refreshing dew of sorrowing affection." Northwest and anord them refreshing dew of sorrowing affection. The support transportation, met his unqualified support. In the last few days he had the proudest of the world's pageants shall have crumbled, genius cannot compose to their memory a purer panegyric, nor art erect to their virtue a nobler monument. Of them, naught now remains save that which is robed for the eternal rest, reposing on beds of glory, clad in robes of immortality.

THE KNOXVILLE MURDER TRIAL. D. M. Nelson Says About the Killing and the Acquittal.

We have already stated the fact that D. M. Nelson charged with the mur-der of General Clanton, of Alabama, price now is $31.20 gold on $835.88 United States currency per ton. And the same is true in regard to coal, which, with water transportation to the sea, could be put in the English of all who read the first excited and market a a cost of $7.50 per ton.

Add to the natural resources of these States, that of cheap transportation to the markets of the New World, and the markets of the New World, and the state of the New World, and the New World world world were the state of the New World the markets of the New World, and then they can compete successfuly for the iron trade of the world.

Very truly,

GEO. T LEWIS.

Blood Sucking.

Bever see or hear of my vindication.
But the press, which is swift to publish articles of a sensational character, should not be slow to repair an injury committed through mistake, as I hope, and not through any personal unkindness to me, and I therefore respectfully appeal to all editors who have published an account of this fatal transaction to do me the tardy tice of publishing, at least, this b It is, and always will be, a source of deep regret to me that General Clan-three characters pretend to represent the policy-holders of the company.

There are however, in round numbers fifteen thousand policy-holders elsewhere who demand a hearing, and who will have it if need be—a need, however, which is scarcely likely to be made evident. Public interest, though demands that the difficulty should not end all at once. An attack has been made upon a business organization and upon business men, an attack which a thorough investigation shows to be without cause or excuse. The officers of the company owe a duty to the public which they should not be prevented from accomplishing by no false motives of delicacy or mercy. The parties to the suit browlet without foundation should be but folly and madness to interpose a resistance likely to bring us in conflict with the e suit should likely to bring us in conflict with the national authority. Yet the deeply fixed sentiments of irrepressible hostellity in the minds and hearts of an outraged people against the vilest ed production being the same as the past thirty, (of course it will be much greater) the annual pig iron product of the world will be 48,000,000 tons, that of Great Britain 24,000,000 tons, and that of the United States 18,000,000 tons. But from the mutterings we hear from Great Britain—From England—it is apparent that she has reachland—it is apparent that she has reachland—it is apparent that she has reachland to the confederate Dead.

Introduction being the same as the pushed as an engine of justice. The business community cannot afford the escape, scot-free, of men who cooly sacrifice the public interest and impugn the motives of honest men for the purpose of furthering some private and malicious scheme.

The Confederate Dead. out the State, and that all our indus > wards the other nothing but feelings of amity, good will and mutual under-Gov. Brown at the Convention.

Gov. Brown, of this State, presided at the Gubernatorial Convention and at its close made the following remarks, as reported in the Atlanta Constitu-President Brown vacated his seat, calling Col. Carrington, of Virginia, to the chair. From all parts of the hall resonnded cries of "Brown!" "John C. Brown!" GOV. BROWN, OF TENNESSEE, sponded to the demand. He thankferred by calling him to preside, and the courtesy and support of each dele-gate. The leading object of the Con-vention, to connect the South and experienced emotions not felt for years. There were gentlemen in the convention of every shade of political opinion; the wearers of the blue as well as the wearers of the gray; men who dif-fered politically as far as the North from the South pole. His mind rever-ted back to the time when he was a defender of Atlanta, then beleagured, and her streets the scene of the horri

He threw himself recklessly down on the sofa and drew the soft folds of the sofa and drew the soft folds of the sofa and drew the soft folds of the sofa and drew the soft general drew the soft gener